Neighbors Driving Neighbors

Belgrade, Fayette, Mount Vernon, Rome, Vienna

Volunteers providing rides for those who don't drive so they can more easily stay in their homes.

Neighbors Driving Neighbors is seeking drivers in Mount Vernon and Vienna.

NDN provides free transportation for adults for errands, exercise sessions, classes, medical appointments, shopping, socialization or volunteering. Here's what two of NDN's riders say about being able to get places they can't get to because they no longer drive: "It is a relief to me to know I can get a ride when I need it," and "It is a good experience, with real country village sociability."

NDN is looking for more people who like to drive, have a good driving record and would enjoy being part of this important effort. The volunteers are generous neighbors who donate their time, vehicle, and gas with no compensation. You will be trained by our coordinators Irene Goff and Sandy Colt, and you will be celebrated by the people who don't drive because you will help them to be able to stay in Mount Vernon and Vienna. One of our present drivers says, "It is very rewarding to be able to help others directly while meeting and visiting with neighbors," and all drivers would agree.

If you are interested, please contact NDN at 860-0677.

Union Hall News

The months of June and July are always busy ones at the Vienna Union Hall. The Union Hall Association presents two new groups; one in June and one in July and of course the Historical Society performs their plays at the end of July.

Porch Party Mamas, a group of dynamic women from the Boston area kicks off the first Union Hall sponsored event on Saturday, June 23. Inspired by playing and singing each others songs at their own "porch parties", these established Boston area musicians and singer/songwriters decided to combine their individual talents and create their own brand of Urban Folk, Country and Blues. They took their act on the road and "Porch Party Mamas" was born. All are seasoned players, each with their own pervasive individual music persona and critical accolades. Between them, they have shared the stage with a distinguished litany of artists, including Willie Nelson, the Indigo Girls and Lyle Lovett. The individual members of the mamas are:

Felicia Brady-Lopez (vocals, accordion, guitar, bass) Raised in Oklahoma and Texas in a household where her mother and piano teacher were one and the same, Felicia started early on the road to her unique musical style and expression. Felicia wields a smokin' accordion and is an accomplished singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist with two beautifully crafted CDs to her name.

Jane Grondin (vocals, fiddle, guitar) grew up in Texas, studying classical violin and piano. As a teenager, she picked up the guitar and started writing and performing her own music.

Ksenia Mack (vocals, guitar, glockenspiel) received her degree in classical guitar at U Conn. She opened for Arlo Guthrie while still in her teens. Ksenia has also opened for Willie Nelson, Indigo Girls, Warren Zevon, Marc Cohn, Robert Cray, The Guess Who, Kate and Anna McGarrigle, Ferron, Paula Poundstone, Aleka's Attic, Aimee Mann, and Marti Jones.

Katrin Peterson (vocals, percussion) a Swiss national, she received her formal training in music and percussion in Germany and Holland and continued her studies in Brazil, Cuba and New York.

Kelly Riley (vocals, bass, guitar, ukulele) is a Berklee College of Music Alum and an Award-Winning performer and songwriter. Among her accolades: TOP WINNER, Nashville Songwriter's Association International Competition.

On Saturday, July 7 the Union Hall brings a local improv group led by comic Dennis Price called Capital City Improv to town. Using audience suggestions and interviews, Capital City Improv creates unique, on-the-spot comedy shows that live for one night only! Dennis Price, founder of Capital City Improv, studied and performed improvisation in Chicago with The Second City and IO Theater (formerly ImprovOlympic). While performing with IO house team Honeyslide, Dennis watched and worked with some of the best improvisers in Chicago. Since coming to Maine in 1998, Dennis has worked as an actor, performer, improviser, teacher, and director. He worked with the Theater at Monmouth for 12 years, and he was also seen at the Penobscot Theater in Bangor and The Public Theater in Lewiston. During the summer, he performs with ImprovAcadia in Bar Harbor. Currently, Dennis teaches Theatre at Winthrop High School and also directs the drama program. He lives in Readfield with his beautiful wife Dania, and Charlotte, the wonder poodle.

Vaping What is it? Risks/Benefits?

Dan Onion, MD, MPH
Mt. Vernon/Vienna Health Officer
293-2076; dkonion@gmail.com

May 2018

Devices to deliver heated solutions of liquid nicotine ("e-juice"), mixed usually in propylene glycol or glycerol, have become popular. They are in the form of "pens" which have a reservoir for the nicotine, a heating element to vaporize it, and a battery to do the heating. They thus produce a nicotine-saturated vapor, which is inhaled, hence "vaping". At least 13-15% of adults have now tried this new way to rapidly absorb nicotine into the blood stream, usually not to feed their nicotine addiction but to help them stop old fashioned "burn" cigarettes and thus avoid the 1000s of bioactive chemicals therein, which cause various cancers (lung, head and neck, bladder) as well as ischemic heart disease. Studies so far suggest that there may be some marginal health benefit when these devices are used alone to assist adult smoking cessation as long as they are not used with a few conventional cigarettes daily. However, public health research shows that most people end up using the two together, and thus suffer the worst of both. Smoking cessation is more safely and reliably accomplished with nicotine patches, gum, or other proven medications, along with group or counselling support (see Mt Vernon Newsletter, Jan-Feb, 2014: p6). Nobody yet knows if passive exposure from "nicotine vapers" is a significant risk to others nearby as it is for cigarettes. The adverse effects of vaping are only beginning to be understood, not surprisingly, since it took us 50 years to prove definitively the bad things smoking tobacco causes.

There are many proven as well as potential dangers to vaping. First, the rechargeable batteries can explode and burn, causing bad burns to the face or inside the pocket they are carried in. Nicotine causes faster heart beats and sometimes arrhythmias like atrial tachycardias or fibrillation. And nicotine itself is of course addicting and thus can prompt withdrawal symptoms, which often lead to higher use and/or use with regular cigarettes. Because the heat vaporized glycerol or propylene glycol liquid nicotine mix produces propylene oxide, formaldehyde, and acetaldehyde, all known cancer-causing chemicals, most researchers expect that eventually we will see higher cancer rates in chronic or past users. Finally, some of the flavorings, especially sweet and cinnamon ones, added to attract new users to vaped nicotine mixes, break down, when heated, into diacetyl and benzaldehyde, compounds known to irritate the respiratory tract and thus can cause chronic bronchitis.

A second group of accidental or intentional users of vaped nicotine, are children and young adults respectively. The latter are now higher users than adults above age 25; surveys in 2015 reported that 15% of 11th graders had tried vaping nicotine. Nicotine impedes brain as well as global body development in the fetus if the pregnant mom uses either conventional tobacco or vaped nicotine. Accidental nicotine liquid exposure in young children from their eating, inhaling, or getting it on their skin or eyes, is just as bad as their eating real cigarettes; together both are responsible for 1000s of poison control center calls annually in the US. Over half of all such calls for nicotine liquid exposure are in this young age group; many are fatal. In teenagers and young adults up to age 25, studies show impaired judgment and other brain function maturation, and higher addiction rates to nicotine and other substances over time with chronic use. Unfortunately, there are few controls on use by these more vulnerable age groups. I went on Amazon today and could have bought all the equipment and supplies to get started myself for under $50. It's the wild west out there.

Finally, it's not just nicotine that can be used in these vaping devices. Inhaling caffeine and various vitamins this way, judging from the Amazon displays, is popular. Like the liquid nicotine, no one knows the long term effects of sucking small particles of known and unknown substances into the lungs, but scarring and other damage seems likely over time. Lung replacements come hard. And of course liquid marijuana infusions can be taken this way too with rapid and extensive absorption; that too has similar bad effects on brain maturation in the young adult population.

So my advice is: be cautious, read the surgeon general's report on vaping (<https://e-cigarettes.surgeongeneral.gov/>); don't vape when pregnant; keep nicotine out of reach of young children; talk about the potential dangers with your teenage and young-adult kids and grandkids. Only opiates and alcohol use present a greater danger to them. I'm sure some day we'll look back and say, "why didn't people realize this could happen and do something!"

Bulky Pickup Reminder

News from The Merry Dumpsters Regarding BULKY PICKUP and Other Trash

Bulky pickup happens three times a year in Vienna (May, July, October) and is a wonderful service for Vienna residents. However, people need to remember that it is NOT free – the town (that means the taxpayers) have to pay for both the pickup and trucking by Riverside Disposal AND we have to pay a tipping/disposal fee at Norridgewock Landfill. The annual recycling/trash calendar lists the dates for the Bulky Pickups and gives some guidelines for what is included.

Unfortunately, there has been some overuse (one might even call it “abuse”) of the Bulky Pickup service. Here are a few additional guidelines:

Bulky Pickup is for BULKY items that would not fit in a trash bag and be able to go with the every other week trash pickup. This is things such as metal, appliances, brown goods, car-sized tires (3 per household, must be dismounted from rims), It is NOT to be used for wholesale clearing out of a house, barn or shed. For that you can either transport it by pickup truck (no trailers) to the Norridgewock Transfer Station OR you can contact a company (such as Riverside Disposal) who provides dumpsters.

No demolition debris will be picked up. Same guidelines for disposal as above.

The weight of any item can not be heavier than can be lifted by two men.

Many people like to put items out several days before the pickup day. This is fine – gives people a chance to see if there is anything worth taking. However, if it is something that absorbs water, such as a couch or chair or mattress, and it rains, the additional weight generated makes it much harder for the trash haulers to handle. The rain can also weaken cardboard boxes and paper bags that have items in them, making it much more difficult for the Trash Haulers to pickup and load.

And of course, the Bulky Pickup Days are when you can dispose of the electronic items known as “Universal Waste.”

The Riverside Disposal Trash Haulers have done a wonderful job for Vienna for many years. Please be considerate of them. Be careful about putting bags of trash out the night before the regular trash pickup. If they contain food waste, animals may smell the garbage and attack the bags looking for food. The Riverside guys have been really good at picking up the torn bags, but they are not required to do that.

And remember – recycling helps the town and helps the environment. Because Vienna residents separate their recycling by category (paper, plastic, metal, cardboard), our recycling is clean. Recycling facilities and processors are finding that much of the single-stream recycling is so contaminated by trash that it can not be used. Please keep recycling. Even if you simply recycle a single type of material (paper is probably the easiest), it helps.

I re-read Kurt Vonnegut’s A Man Without a Country recently. His work is always so reflective. Besides enjoying his work, I just finished Jason Reynolds’ beautiful and heartrending Young Adult novel, told in poetry, Long Way Down. Now I’m onto a young adult nonfiction, Votes for Women! American Suffragists and the Battle for the Ballot, by Winifred Conkling. What are you reading as we wait for rain to aid the microbes in the garden soil?

Dr. Shaw Memorial Library News Continued

Alice has written the latest addition to possible resources for our community elders:

Did you know that you can grocery shop from home at both 29 Whitten Rd. Hannaford and Walmart in Augusta? All this requires is a computer or mobile device, and a credit card. You simply log into the site, Hannaford.com or Walmart.com/grocery, set up an account, and choose from the same items available at the store for the same price. Create your list on line, submit it, allow at least 4 hours for your order to be ready, and then pick it up. Customers can use coupons and credit cards, the same way they would in the store. Orders may be sent in ahead or picked up on the same day if orders are received in time. At Hannaford, there are six parking spaces in the front of the store reserved for "groceries to go" customer vehicles to be loaded, or customers can use the drive through lane. At Walmart, attendants will be waiting with your groceries to load in your car at a prearranged time that you give them. There is also a reserved parking area near the front of the store for "groceries to go" customers. A number to call if you arrive early or late is 509-1804.

At Hannaford, the first trip is free. After that, there is a $5.00 service charge if the total bill is less than $125.00. At Walmart, you can get $10.00 off your first order of at least $50.00 by using the coupon code WOWFRESH. After that, there is no charge, but the order must exceed $30.00. Neither store includes greeting cards nor prescription drugs. For more information about these programs call Whitten Rd Hannaford in Augusta 622-3148, or Augusta Walmart 623-8223.

Neighbors Driving Neighbors can take you to pick up your groceries if you need help with that. Be sure to give them adequate advance notice. You can make arrangements with Neighbors Driving Neighbors by calling 860-0677.

Mill Stream Grange members attended N. Vienna United Methodist Church on April 29 for "Grange Sunday".

Mill Stream Grange members Carole O'Connell (r) and Jill Sampson (l) helped Gordon Webber place flags to honor veterans in the Franklin Cemetery on Tower Road in Vienna. Grange Memorial flags were also placed on graves of departed members. Also participating in placing flags were Allan Harville, Paul Lavender and Lisa Goucher. If any community member visiting the cemetery (or the cemetery across from the NVUMC) notices that a flag needs to be placed, please contact Gordon Webber.

North Vienna United Methodist Church

- ◇ A Celebration of the Life of Charlie Cortelyou will be held at North Vienna UMC on Saturday, June 16th at 11:00am with a “baked bean suppah” reception following the service. Charlie loved this community and its people and he really enjoyed all the local suppers. This is a way for us to honor him and celebrate his life. Join us as we remember this wonderful man.
- ◇ North Vienna UMC is planning some Vesper services this summer. These will be evening outdoor services with lots of singing, prayers, stories, scripture, and listening to the sounds of nature around us. The first service will be held at the camp of Jim and Kathy Meader on Flying Pond on Sunday, July 22nd at 6:00pm. It is recommended that people car-pool or walk due to limited parking. We’ll worship along the shore of the lake and around a campfire weather permitting. Other services will be scheduled for August and September and will be announced.

Water Quality Monitoring Season Has Begun

In order to better understand the overall health of the lakes and ponds in our watershed, we have begun our third year of water quality monitoring! Measuring things like transparency, temperature, dissolved oxygen, pH and other indicators of lake health provides greater understanding of lake conditions. With this knowledge, we can prioritize our efforts to step in and address negative trends through the prevention of erosion, runoff, and other pollutants that harm our lakes, ponds and streams. We are planning to collect data on 10 lakes and ponds this season and will be regularly updating our website with the results. To learn more about this important program, go to www.30mileriver.org or contact Marissa at steward@30mileriver.org.

Upcoming Events

Paddle Trek: Register today for our 10th Annual Paddle Trek on Saturday, July 28th. This 15-mile guided paddle from Mt. Vernon Village to Wayne Village travels along many of the lakes and streams that form the “30 Mile River” including Hopkins Pond, Hopkins Stream, Taylor Pond, Echo Lake and its Mill Pond, Lovejoy Pond, Jennings Stream, Pickerel Pond, and Pocasset Lake, ending in Wayne Village’s Mill Pond. Paddlers can opt to complete the entire paddle or just portions of it. Check out our website for more details to complete your registration!

Classical Meets Pop Concert: We hope you can join us at the Mount Vernon Community Center on Sunday, July 1st at 7:00 PM for the 8th Annual Classical Meets Pops concert featuring alumni from NPR’s From the Top. Tickets are $14 for adults and $7 for children and will be available on our website beginning Friday, June 1st. Proceeds benefit 30MRWA and the Parker Pond Association. This event sells out quickly so mark your calendars to make sure you can get your tickets!

Summer Volunteers Needed

Are you interested in giving back and spending some quality time outdoors this summer? We are looking for volunteers interested in conducting Courtesy Boat Inspections, helping us with Water Quality Monitoring, or joining an Invasive Plant Patrol team (or all three!). Trainings for these rewarding and fun opportunities are available. To learn more about these programs or to fill out a volunteer interest form, go to the volunteer page on our website. Questions? Email Katie at kchurch@30mileriver.org.
